

KIT'S CORNER

Product reviews, ideas & tips catering to the “not so big” pup.

1. Though Kit prefers to stay dry, she took to FURminator’s skin-stimulating TubNub bathing brush. Furminator.com

2. When a fashion-forward pup steps out, Walk-e-Woo’s Graffiti, Brown Plaid Dots and Groovy Girl collars, with their flashy colors and quality hardware, offer sassy options. Walkewoo.com

3. For quick pick-me-ups, Juno’s Garden Pal Dog Coat Care and Massage Lotion — no-rinse with botanicals and skin soothers — provides her with a relaxing experience. Paldog.com

4. West Paw’s Bumper Bed, with its super soft, IntelliLoft cushion, gives Kit a cozy place to snooze. Many colors to choose from, too. Westpawdesign.com

5. Kit enjoys interactive play with Paw Pets’ new line of puppet toys, made with pet-safe materials and dyes and double-stitched for durability. For the giant-sized, try the 26-inch pink Hippolynne; smaller 10-inch versions, like Crocobrett, are also available. Getpawpets.com

6. Kit throws herself into her role as taste-tester, and was enthusiastic about STAM’s line of grain-free baked goodies. The chickpea-flour base includes health-conscious Spirulina & Chia Seed; these treats can be broken into smaller bites, great for training. Stamtreats.com
